FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CREAM OF THE CROP
RTL Networks, Inc. Employees Graduate Chamber Connect

Denver, Colo., January 4, 2012- On December 15, 2011, Irena Turner and Danielle Brooks, RTL Networks, Inc. team members, graduated from the prestigious Colorado Black Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Development program, "Chamber Connect". Although, many initially applied for enrollment into this 2011 class, Turner and Brooks graduated the program beside 35 other emerging business leaders and professionals who were admitted and successfully graduated from this rigorous ten month program from across the community. Graduates of the 2011 class attended numerous workshops, lectures with community leaders, politicians and leading businesspeople. In addition, this class distinguished itself by planning and executing community projects, including a book drive and renovation for the Manual HS library and the renovation of a homeless facility in the Denver area.

Within the first six months of her career at RTL Networks, Irena Turner transitioned from a two week temporary assignment, to a part-time independent contractor, to a full time employee. Turner capitalizes on her strengths as an achiever and a goal setter and fulfills several roles at RTL Networks, including Executive Assistant to the President/CEO, and Office Manager. Turner is an essential part of the RTL Networks team and a "budding" entrepreneur herself.

Danielle Brooks, also an employee of RTL Networks, began as an intern in 2008 and through hard work, commitment and demonstrated creative abilities propelled herself into her current position of Marketing/Website Manager within her first six months of employment. During the graduation ceremony, Brooks, who is also a "budding" entrepreneur, received the "Work Ethic Award" for exceptional commitment and dedicated service, and a "Community Service Award" for her outstanding leadership.

The Chamber Connect Leadership Program was founded by State Representative Angela Williams and President/CEO of RTL Networks, Inc., Richard Lewis in 2007. Richard Lewis, during his remarks at the graduation ceremony said, "Please join me in acknowledging all of our graduates tonight, who are being celebrated for their commitments to our community, as well as, their leadership and integrity...We are proud of all of you and I am especially proud and privileged to have two members from tonight's graduating class as members of the RTL Networks family. They do great things for RTL every day and I am extremely honored to have the opportunity to share their talents and passion with the broader community."
